

*Southern Division of the American Fisheries Society
Warmwater Streams Committee
Jimmie Pigg Memorial Outstanding Student Achievement Award*

The award is provided annually to outstanding university student(s) who have displayed a commitment to excellence in warmwater stream-related research, education, and professional and public service. Any AFS member can nominate a student for this award, but both the nominator and the student must complete nomination material.

All nomination material must be submitted by December 18, 2009 to Eric Cummins, Kentucky Fish & Wildlife Resources, 970 Bennett Lane, Bowling Green, KY 42104. The award will be presented at the 2010 Spring Meeting in North Carolina.

To Be Completed By Student:

Student Name: _____

Nominator: _____ University: _____

Enrollment Dates: _____

Actual or Expected Graduation Date and Degree: _____

On separate pages, please provide the following:

1. Provide an outline of your research activities including field, laboratory, and data analysis tasks. Clearly state hypothesis, goals, and objectives of your research. Attach an abstract for possible submittal to the Mid-Year Meeting.
2. Provide an overview of your educational experience including a critique of up to 5 courses you feel were important in your professional development.
3. Provide an overview of your professional activities including your involvement with AFS and other professional organizations.
4. Provide an overview of your public service related activities including involvement with children and adult conservation related activities.
5. Provide any additional information you feel that makes you an outstanding student.

To Be Completed By Nominator:

Student Name: _____

How do you know this student: _____

1. Provide a brief description of the student's research, education, professional and public service activities.
2. Why do you consider this student to be truly outstanding?